The ElevateHER movement is a catalyst for personal and professional growth. Tell us why you would like to be a part of the 2022 class, and how you are looking to improve the industry through your participation.

(Please respond in 500 words or less)

What unique skills, knowledge, or insight would you bring to the ElevateHER class of 2022?

(Please respond in 500 words or less)

Is there an area of focus relating to diversity and recruitment/retention challenges that you are particularly passionate about (policy reforms, internal programs, community outreach, etc.)?

(Please respond in 500 words or less)

The following question will have no impact on your application but is necessary for program coordination purposes:

If chosen, will you be in need of financial assistance to attend the two in-person meetings over the next year?

Yes No

Would your firm be interested in sponsoring ElevateHER?

Yes No

Would you be interested in writing your ElevateHER story for publication on our website and/or The Zweig Letter?

Yes No

Is there anything additional that you would like to share with us?

If your application is accepted, we will have two in-person meeting commitments. We will finalize the date (tentatively April 6/7, 2022) for the kick-off meeting once we have the cohort assembled, so we can accommodate the most members. The second in-person meeting will be at the 2022 ElevateAEC Conference, which will be in Las Vegas, Nevada, on September 14, 2022. In between these dates, cohort members are expected to meet virtually to advance their projects on a regular basis via conference call or video conference.

Members of the 2022 ElevateHER cohort will have a participation fee of $3,000. This fee includes access to Zweig Group's entire research library (a $5,700 value, attendance at one of Zweig Group seminars of their choice, and attendance at the first ever in-person ElevateHER summit (up to a $3,000 value), access to regular trainings and discussions, materials and resources used in the development of project deliverables, and so much more. Please check here if you anticipate the need for financial support.
